

Ali Kurr

While studying at the Courtauld Institute of Art, Ali Kurr's experimental immersive videos ignited a passion for filmmaking and directing. Her evolving, genre shifting style has seen her produce some of the most striking promos for artists including Loyle Carner, Poppy Ajudha and Rina Sawayama.

Her work has been recognised at the UK MVAs and had her named VEVO's 'One To Watch'. Her commercial work is bold, energetic and full of attitude, with recent campaigns for the BBC, Bang and Olufsen, Nando's and Sports England garnering praise and a coveted D&AD award.

Her narrative debut 'Sparrow', made alongside BAFTA nominated producer Sorcha Bacon, opened BFI Flare's 'Calm Before the Storm' showcase. She has since directed award winning short 'Kindred' as well as erotic short 'Outercourse' and was named an 'Emerging Brit' by the National Youth Film Academy.
