

Stini Röhrs

Stini Röhrs is a Director and Photographer, based in Berlin and Paris. After her Master's degree in art history she studied visual communication at the University of Arts in Berlin and at Pratt Institute New York City. Trained in performance theory as well as being closely linked with Berlin's electronic music scene, Stini has developed a uniquely sensitive approach to both still and moving images. Her vibrant images open up authentic and easygoing point-of-views. They are the outcome of intimate moments of companionship and complicity, in which she intuitively connects with her subjects.

With rich experience in fashion, culture and lifestyle, she captures her talent's spirit and beauty in a cinematic manner that feels both playful and physical. As such, she compellingly expands her empowering and forward-facing body of work that - always originating from the human individual - embraces contemporary culture.
